2024-25 SCPYO Seniors

Kathryn Adler, Piano

Converse University, Music Therapy

Favorite Memory: Billy the Kid and Pre-Concert Wendy's

Henry Berg, Piano

Grinnel College, Political Science

Favorite Memory: The Star Wars performance with the Darth Vader light saber battle

Max Berg, Trumpet

Emory University, Applied Math

Favorite Memory: Playing Sabre Dance

Sarah Bobertz, Cello

Davidson College

Favorite Memory: Playing Mars my Sophomore year

Aidan Duncan, Trombone

University of South Carolina, Music Composition

Favorite Memory: Playing wordscapes with Jackson during rehearsal

Ryan Ezekial, Bassoon

University of South Carolina, Biochemistry, Pre-med

Favorite Memory: Having all his friends come to support him at his first concert this January.

Savannah Gaither, Flute

Furman University, Biology, Pre-med

Favorite Memory: Getting lunch with the flutes before concerts and performing with great musicians!

Mary Ann Gardiner, Clarinet

University of South Carolina, Aerospace Engineering

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory from SCPYO is performing in the concerts.

Natalie Ha, Viola

Psychology

Favorite Memory: Running around talking to people in the rehearsal room before every concert.

Annalisa Ingram, Percussion

University of South Carolina, Music Education

Favorite Memory: The music. There were moments in some of our pieces that feel unreal when you listen to them, especially on a stage where the emotions are even more powerful than they are in a rehearsal space.

Patrick Jackson, Cello

University of South Carolina, Music Education

Favorite Memory: the down time where everyone is hanging out in the rehearsal room right before performances start

Ibrahim Jatoi, Cello

Duke or University of Alabama, Pre-Law

Favorite Memory: In concert orchestra, getting to play a solo in a piece with the composer (Bert Ligon) playing with us on stage

Kaleb Kelly, Cello

University of South Carolina, Hospitality Management

Favorite Memory: Learning Equinox with Dr. Hanna

Chandler Knott, Bassoon

University of South Carolina, Sports and Entertainment Management

Favorite Memory: I've only been apart of Youth Phil for two cycles but overall I've really enjoyed meeting all of people here and making a bunch of friends!

Chaeyeon Lee, Flute

San Diego

Favorite Memory: Going to Cava with the flute section before concerts

James Long, Saxophone

TBD, Music Education and Performance Certificate

Favorite Memory: Working with Director Hannah, performances (and solo opportunities), and making new friends.

Alice Lyu, Flute

International Business

Favorite Memory: I love how our conductor is always so friendly and funny. The atmosphere during our rehearsal are not depressing at all, instead, he makes everyone laugh but still learn well.

Brady Miller, Bass

Accounting

Favorite Memory: Playing the Star Wars Suite for Strings

Evelyn Ortiz, French Horn

University of South Carolina, Civil Engineering

Favorite Memory: Playing Wordscapes during rehearsal

Jacob Parker, Violin

University of South Carolina, Computer Engineering

Addie Schneider, French Horn

University of South Carolina, Nursing

Favorite Memory: Playing in Koger for the first time.

Payton Steelman, Violin

Winthrop University, Early Childhood Education

Favorite Memory: Getting to play Danzon No.2 with my friends

Mary Allison Swaim, Cello

University of Georgia or Furman, Music Performance

Favorite Memory: Playing Billy the Kid side-by-side with the SC Phil in 2023

Kate Tucker, Viola

University of South Carolina, Music Education

Favorite Memory: Growing up with friends from the 7th grade and meeting new friends along the way.

Justin Williams, Violin

Work in Construction

Favorite Memory: Seeing that I made it into SCPYO and being able to play and perform more challenging music

Jackson Winston, Trombone

Music Performance and Economics

Favorite Memory: One time Aidan forgot his trombone for a concert. Ryan Bus-sell gave us an extra one but we had to learn how to pick locks to open it so he could play in the concert.

Anna Zou, Flute

Georgia Tech, Biomedical Engineering

Favorite Memory: Being a part of the A-Team (the flute section) my sophomore year.

Congratulations to all our graduating seniors! We are so proud of you and wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.
